

Bailard Real Estate Fund

The Fund is a core open-end, private equity real estate vehicle with a strategy to maintain and grow a high-quality portfolio diversified across the U.S. and the four major property types.

The Opportunity

Historically, private equity real estate investment has offered low correlation with other asset classes; exhibited less volatility than stocks, bonds, and publicly-traded REITs; and provided attractive risk/return characteristics. When included in a diversified investment portfolio, private equity real estate can potentially lower total portfolio risk and enhance returns.<sup>1</sup>

Bailard has over 40 years of experience investing in real estate and—during that broad sweep—has navigated five distinct real estate market cycles. Bailard created the Fund in 1990 to provide a solution to many of the problems associated with the asset class; the Fund offers an active portfolio strategy, institutional-quality properties, a liquidity mechanism, and enhanced shareholder governance.

Investment Strategy

Bailard’s fundamental investment thesis is that clients and investors can achieve substantial benefits from a diversified portfolio of direct real estate combining stabilized, Core properties with assets in the Value-add phase of their life-cycle. Further, investment professionals at Bailard proactively tailor the real estate portfolio to seek an ideal blend between steady/sustainable income and strong potential for capital appreciation.

Bailard's real estate investment strategy strives to uphold the following principles:

- Own only quality assets (location, material, design, tenancy, and amenities) that will stand the test of time
- Build or buy at or below replacement cost
- Add value through active asset management
- Align with best-in-class local operators and service providers
- Identify and constantly monitor multiple exit strategies

Active Investment Approach

Bailard's philosophy is based on the belief that there are opportunities for nimble, active investors to buy, create, and capture value at all points of the investment cycle. The Fund's approach is designed to offer both income and growth where the large component

Value-Enhancement Mindset

Bailard's approach puts a premium on speed, agility, and confident execution without sacrificing discipline and diligence. The Fund's active strategy seeks to acquire Value-add investments, implement a business plan to stabilize the asset, then either hold (for cash flow and additional capital appreciation) or sell, followed by redeployment of the proceeds into new value-add opportunities.<sup>2</sup>

- 1 Buy Right
Seek investments with situational mispricing and outstanding relative value (build or buy at or below replacement cost)
- 2 Add Value
Implement the business plan: Rehab, re-tenant, redevelop, re-capitalize, and/or reposition
- 3 Active Hold/Sell Discipline
  - Hold – Own the asset for income: Nurture cash flow and continue to add incremental value
  - Sell – Execute the exit strategy: Capture the value and redeploy proceeds into a new value-add acquisition of stabilized assets ( $\pm 75\%$ ) generates a strong and durable cash flow stream, while the value-add acquisition focus provides the potential for capital appreciation.

Bailard employs a top-down/bottom-up investment process designed to identify attractive opportunities and exploit mispricing across property types and geographic regions. The Fund invests in properties that can be characterized as Value-add or Opportunistic and converts them to Core. After repositioning, Bailard holds assets deemed to have further appreciation potential and sells back to the marketplace those properties that Bailard believes to have greater downside risk than upside potential.

Central to the success of this strategy is the ability to move nimbly in and out of positions and markets. Bailard recognizes that—at a certain size—portfolios become cumbersome, limiting the universe of opportunities and prospects for consistent, above-benchmark returns. Bailard seeks to always maintain agility and discipline in order to have the ability to carefully reposition the portfolio through prudent investments and divestments and to optimize the mix of markets and properties.

Robust Risk Management

Bailard believes that diversification is critical to risk management and return enhancement within the property portfolio. The portfolio is managed not only to provide property type and geographic diversification but also seeks to provide diversification by life cycle and economic driver. Specifically, while a map may indicate adequate geographic diversification with properties across the U.S., that diversification may be significantly overstated if two or more of the markets have substantial dependence upon or exposure to the same economic driver (technology or energy, for instance).

Balance sheet strength and flexibility are important to the Fund. Bailard's goal is for the portfolio to be efficiently—but modestly—leveraged (i.e., less than 35% aggregate loan to value) with a pool of unencumbered assets in addition to leveraged properties.

Further, an independent Board of Directors governs the Fund. The Board is charged with representing shareholder interests, carefully considering independent appraisals to set property valuations on a quarterly basis, and making all final acquisition and disposition decisions.
